1) INTRODUCTION

Mindpool Technologies Limited (“the Company”) is a Public Company whose shares are listed on National stock exchange of India Limited SME Platform w.e.f 28th February, and subject to the rules and regulations issued by the Securities Exchange Board of India (SEBI). The Company believes in the objective of wealth creation; which can only be achieved by ensuring transparency and fairness in dealing with all the stakeholders and in ensuring adherence to all applicable laws and regulations not only in letter but also in true spirit.

This policy shall be applicable to all Insiders (as defined herein) of the Company including designated persons and immediate relatives of designated persons as defined in this policy. The SEBI Regulations prohibit an Insider from Trading in the securities of a company listed on any stock exchange when in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information.

Unpublished Price Sensitive Information (“UPSI”) means any information, which relates, directly or indirectly, to the Company or its securities, that is not generally available which upon becoming generally available, is likely to materially affect the price of the securities of the Company.

“Generally available” information means information that is accessible to the public on a non-discriminatory basis. Information which is published on the website of stock exchange/s where the securities of the Company are listed or published by way of a press release by the company, would ordinarily be considered generally available.

Pursuant to the provisions of the SEBI Regulations, Mindpool has formulated this comprehensive set of guidelines – “Mindpool Technologies Limited – Insider Trading Policy and Code of Conduct for Fair Disclosure” (“the Code of Conduct” or “the Code”).

OBJECTIVE:

The objective of this Code is to provide a level playing field for the Company’s officers and the general investors in the securities market thereby ensuring transparency and fair play in securities’ transaction(s). The Code lays down in a concise manner the ethical values and legal requirements which need to be adhered by the Designated Persons, to whom the Code is applicable, so as to promote the corporate culture of trust, honesty, integrity, transparency and accountability and to contribute to the value creation for all the stakeholders.

EFFECTIVE DATE:

The Code of Conduct for Prevention of Insider Trading has been adopted by the Board of Directors of the Company which shall come into force with immediate effect.

13) CERTAIN DOS AND DON'TS IN CONNECTION WITH INSIDER TRADING

DOs	DONTs
DO remember that it is a crime to trade securities based on "INSIDE INFORMATION" - information you learn about your company or a closely allied company which is not generally available to the public, and which could cause the security's price to change if it became known.	DON'T act on someone else's "hot tips" that might be based on inside information-it's just as illegal as trading on inside information you've learned about your own company
DO keep all insider information confidential.	DON'T ever trade securities on inside information
DO check the Company's trading policies. When in doubts, consult the Compliance Officer before trading in your company's securities.	DON'T provide inside information to anyone, not even to your family
DO keep up to date with how trading laws and the Company's trading policies apply to your position in the Company, especially if you're a Designated Person.	DON'T give out untrue or misleading information that others might think is an insider tip
Follow the Disclosure and Reporting Requirements under this Code.	DON'T assist Traders if they have Inside information
	DON'T take positions in derivative transactions in the securities of Company at any time.
